The PGDLPO Course from Rainmaker and IGNOU is one of the best in the field of Legal Outsourcing. It is an excellent learning opportunity. The concept of e-learning and flexi-approach, both in terms of time and place, is a boon for the working class. From my office room to my bedroom and to a hotel room on a vacation, I had the opportunity of studying at various places and that too at late hours in the night at times. The study materials provided in the Post-Graduate Course are of immense value and it will definitely help all to gain a deeper understanding of the fundamentals of legal work in the United States and United Kingdom.
